

Can You Complete These Sentences About School Rules?

It is a rule in some schools that you have to wait outside a classroom until told to enter by a teacher. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you have to wait quietly behind your chair at the start of a lesson, and only sit down when a teacher asks you to do so. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that bags must be placed on the floor out of the way. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you have to stand quietly when a member of staff or visitor enters the room. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never talk when a teacher is talking. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never shout out. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never be rude to anyone. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never be violent or aggressive. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never eat or drink in classrooms or in corridors. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never run anywhere indoors. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must never touch or lean on displays or notice boards. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that full school uniform must be worn correctly at all times. This will be useful in later life, when...

It is a rule in some schools that you must keep your hands, feet, body, and objects to yourself. This will be useful in later life, when...