

Write Your Own Jokes: Aggressive Piglet

Hungary has a tradition of jokes about an aggressive piglet, who is extremely good at saying exactly the naughtiest thing in any given situation. Like if Jimmy Carr was living the 100 Acre Wood.

On this page there are some examples of existing jokes. These are fun to read out loud, acting out doing the different voices, and YELLING where the text is in caps.

These should also inspire you to think of your own Aggressive Piglet jokes.

Think about a situation where you would expect someone to be polite and respectful...then add a shouty little porcine monster to the mix.

If you get stuck, think about celebrity piglets from books, movies and TV shows. What would be the worst things that Babe the Sheep-pig could say, Wilbur from Charlotte's Web, Winnie The Pooh's friend Piglet or any one of Peppa Pig's friends and family..?
